

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HABS
WASH,
29-ANAC
1-

Curtis Wharf
"O" and Second Streets
Anacortes
Skagit County
Washington

HABS No. WA-198

John Stamets, Photographer; WA-198-1 through WA-198-11, June 1992.

- WA-198-1      Panoramic view, city of Anacortes, from the top of a tanker barge at the Port of Anacortes.
View looking southwest.
- WA-198-2      Panoramic view, Curtis Wharf, from the top of a tanker barge at the Port of Anacortes. View looking south.
- WA-198-3      Panoramic view, Guemes Channel, from the top of a tanker barge at the Port of Anacortes. View looking southeast.
- WA-198-4      East side of Curtis Wharf, as seen from the pier at the Port of Anacortes. View looking south and west.
- WA-198-5      Freight Warehouse, east facade, on the right;
east facade and southeast corner of Ticket Office on the left.
- WA-198-6      Looking into the inner court. Left to right:
Cold Storage Warehouse, east facade; Freight Warehouse, south facade; Ticket Office, southwest corner.
- WA-198-7      View looking south and west along the railroad right-of-way. Cement and Plaster Warehouse on the left; Creamery on the right.
- WA-198-8      View of Curtis Wharf looking northeast;
ferry slip in center, Sand and Gravel Wharf
on the left.
- WA-198-9      View looking north and east along the railroad right-of-way. Cement and Plaster Warehouse on the right; on the left, left to right, corner of Feed Mill, dock of Hay and Grain Warehouse, 2-bay south facade of Ice Plant, and on the end, south facade of Creamery.

CURTIS WHARF
HABS No. WA-198
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS (Page 2)

- WA-198-10 "Rephotographic" of WA-198-18. Directly north, in the center, is the ferry slip; on the right, west side of main dock; on the left, the Sand and Gravel Wharf.
- WA-198-11 View east into the inner court between the Freight Warehouse and the Cold Storage Warehouse from the Sand and Gravel Wharf. Ferry slip is in the foreground.
- WA-198-12 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Port of Anacortes.) Brady's Anacortes Studio, Photographer, date unknown. Overview of Curtis Wharf. North section of main dock is intact; Sand and Gravel Wharf on the right.
- WA-198-13 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Anacortes Museum.) Photographer unknown. Early view, c. 1905, looking north and east, before the construction of the Cement and Plaster Warehouse and the expansion of the wharf itself to the west.
- WA-198-14 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Anacortes Museum.) Published in the Anacortes American, April 1907. Tacoma Engineering Company, Photographer. View to the north. On the right, early ticket office, south facade; behind it, a warehouse, east section of the present building; on the left, the original freight warehouse, the west section of the present building. Note wharf configuration in front of Ticket Office.
- WA-198-15 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Wallie V. Funk Collection.) Photographer unknown. Published in the Anacortes American, 12 October 1911; "Plant of the Anacortes Ice Company and Curtis Dock." Photograph probably earlier. View looking northwest, left to right; Cement and Plaster Warehouse; Ice Plant (with towers); Cold Storage Warehouse; Freight Warehouse; a warehouse; and early ticket office.
- WA-198-16 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Wallie V. Funk Collection.) Photographer unknown. Published in the Anacortes American, 19 March 1914, "Curtis Wharf Company Handles

CURTIS WHARF
HABS No. WA-198
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS (Page 3)

City's Extensive Maritime Traffic." View looking northeast. In the foreground, the Standard Oil Dock; behind it, the west side of the main dock. In the center, west facade, Hay and Grain Warehouse (Bottling Works not yet built.) To the right, Feed Mill. Note coal bin at northwest corner of the Hay and Grain Warehouse.

- WA-198-17 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Anacortes Museum.) Photographer unknown, c. 1915. View to the northeast, west side of main wharf in the background. Right to left: Cement and Plaster Warehouse (labelled "Curtis Wharf Warehouse #2"); Feed Mill; and Bottling Works, with the Sand and Gravel Wharf across from it, to the left.
- WA-198-18 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Wallie V. Funk Collection.) Photographer unknown, c. 1920. View looking north, ferry slip in the center; to the right is the main wharf. Buildings on the main wharf, right to left: "Ferry Cigar Stand," no longer extant; Feed Mill; Bottling Works (with dormer). On the left, the Sand and Gravel Wharf.
- WA-198-19 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Wallie V. Funk Collection.) Photographer unknown, c. 1928. View looking north: ferry slip in the center. To the right is the south facade of the Feed Mill; to the left, the Sand and Gravel Wharf.
- WA-198-20 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Wallie V. Funk Collection.) Photographer unknown, c. 1934. Northwest corner of the main dock, west facade of the Freight Warehouse to the right. Passengers embarking onto the twin-stack single screw "Tacoma," travelling to Victoria on the Puget Sound Navigation Company's "Black Ball" line.
- WA-198-21 Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Anacortes Museum.) Tacoma Engineering Company, Photographer. Advertisement published in the Anacortes American April 1907. Same view as WA-198-14.

CURTIS WHARF
HABS No. WA-198
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS (Page 4)

WA-198-22      Photocopy of photograph (Original print, Anacortes Museum.) Morse of San Francisco, Photographer. Date unknown. Portrait of Melville Curtis.